SO Festival 2011 Starts Search For Volunteers

Organisers of this year's SO Festival 2011 are on the lookout for 500 volunteers. Event organisers, East Lindsey District Council and Magnetic Events, chose Tuesday 15th March, which marks 500 days to go until London 2012 opens, to start their search for people who'd like to get involved in the three day SO Festival extravaganza.

SO Festival 2011 takes place between 22nd and 24th July in Skegness and East Lindsey District Council and Magnetic Events are looking for people to volunteer in many different areas, from helping out on information stands and stewarding through to getting involved in Games Time, the SO Festival's headline attraction.

Of the 500 volunteers being sought, 200 people are expected to take part in Games Time, a community celebration which will bring the spirit of the Olympic Games to Skegness.

Games Time is part of the Community Celebrations programme funded by Legacy Trust UK, an independent charity set up to create a cultural legacy from the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games across the UK.

Arts Council England has also provided significant funding to bring SO Festival 2011 to life.

People interested in volunteering should register with the national volunteers database which can be found by clicking here. Further information about SO Festival is also available by clicking here.

Save Money and go Green

Lincolnshire businesses are being offered two days of training, free, in a bid to help boost their green credentials and save money. The two-day workshop, organised by SUSTAIN Lincolnshire, will help demonstrate how businesses can save money, reduce waste and be more resource efficient.

Experts in eco-planning will deliver the Environmental Management Systems Workshop - open to businesses in the county with less than 250 staff - on April the 6th and 7th in Lincoln. The course will provide representatives from each business an introduction to everything from environmental law to how to persuade colleagues to adopt the green mantle.

For more information or to book your place, please contact the project office on 01522 589964 or click here to send an email.
